

Applying to a Playwright Millay Colony Residency

*Application Deadlines: *Millay Colony has two yearly deadlines:

*October 1st* (Midnight, EST) deadline is for the April, May, June & July residency sessions. The online system for the October 1st deadline opens early March.

*March 1st* (Midnight, EST) deadline is for the August, September, October & November sessions. The online system for the March 1st deadline opens early November.

What you will need to prepare before beginning the application process:

Artist Statement: In a one page Word document, write about your work, yourself and your current thinking about what you'd like to accomplish at Millay Colony as clearly and concisely as possible. The document can be single-spaced. The jurors want to get a sense of you as a writer and your creative process. This will help in making final decisions. For the artist statement, you do not include information regarding awards, publishing, etc. Do not include and biographical or other identifying information in your Artist Statement, doing so could disqualify your application.

Work Sample: Create a Work Sample of up to 20 pages in playwriting standard industry format. Work samples can be a work-in-progress or already published work; whatever you feel will make for the strongest application. Do not include and biographical or identifying information in your Work Sample.

Combine your Artist Statement and Work Sample into a single document. Make sure the Artist Statement is on page 1 and the Work Sample starts on Page 2. Make sure your name is not anywhere within the body of your work, including the subject box when saving the document.

Biographical Statement & Preferred Residency Dates: Write up to 2 paragraphs listing relevant professional accomplishments such as awards, published works, etc. No CV's please, they will not be considered as a bio statement. Also, tell us how you heard of the Millay Colony. This is for the administrative file and will not be seen by the jury members.

Let us know if you're applying for the following fellowships; Mid-Atlantice Foundation, Cave Canem, or The Sustainable Arts Foundation (supporting parents in the arts).

The October 1st deadline is for residencies from April-July, with a March 1st deadline for residencies August-November. Twelve-day residencies are also available in June & September. After your biographical statement, denote (in order of preference) those months which you would be available to come to the Colony. Include any comments regarding availability. Please note that we cannot guarantee months.

When you have all of the materials prepared and you are ready to apply:

1. Go to the Playwriting application form located here:
